The others are: P. A. Street, field engineer; Walter Bircher, draughtsman; O. R. Pease and Morris Tingley, inspectors.

E. M. Bigelow, Pittsburg, is the new highway commissioner and the notice came from him. It does not necessarily mean the letting out of the local men, as such notice is generally given with the change of administrations of heads of departments.

The last official act of Mr. Long was to recommend the contract for a mile of road in Susquehanna county to T. S. Newman, Athens, Pa.

The distribution of township appropriations till June 30, 1913, in this and surrounding counties, is as follows:

Lackawanna, $9,452; Wyoming, $20,999; Wayne, $27,961; Susquehanna, $40,775; Monroe, $7,896.

—Two hundred couple attended the first annual military ball in the new $35,000 Park Place Armory last Friday evening.

In honor of the gala event, the drill hall was simply but appropriately decorated with large flags and bunting.

Between the acts, light refreshments were served in the basement. Terpsichorean music was furnished by an orchestra hidden behind a bank of palms. The players were Jos. A. Bodie, Jr., at the piano; Fred Sommer, Leon Katz, Jeff Freeman, violinists; Henry Rehbein and John Bussa, clarionetists; A. M. Leine, cellist; Henry Wagner, trombone; R. F. Dorin, drums.

The affair, which netted Company E, Thirtieth Infantry, $150, was in charge of committees consisting of Thomas Kelly, Earl Schenk, Ed. Doney (music); Charles Paatz, (program); Dan Faatz (decorations); Michael Stahl (refreshments).

Several of the original "Seventyniners" graced the occasion by their presence.

—The German Catholic baseball club journeyed to Liberty, N. Y., and played two games on the Fourth. The team had hard luck, losing both games to their opponents. The morning game Honesdale got four runs against Liberty's fourteen. Lall pitched. Seventeen hits were secured off of Lall, while Honesdale got nine.

The afternoon game, pitched by Welch, was exciting, eleven innings being played before the final score was made by Liberty. It stood 5 to 6 in Liberty's favor. The home boys claim that by an unfair decision of the umpire they lost their second game, which by rights belonged to Honesdale. They spoke in words of highest praise for the Liberty team but doubted the decisions of the umpire, which they claim were in many instances not fair. Honesdale's lineup: Welch and Lall, pitchers; Lilquist, catcher; Guthell, first baseman; Polt, second baseman; Tuman, third baseman; Holl, leftfielder; Warner, center fielder; Herzog, rightfielder, Kupfer, shortstop.

The team left Monday afternoon by the way of the Erie road and arrived home Wednesday afternoon.

—The N. Y. American of recent date contains a story of interest to Maple City folks, since the mother of Benjamin Heine was formerly a Miss Clara Falk, Honesdale.

The article follows: Benjamin Heine, of No. 503 Broadway, New York, in the wholesale line, took his old friend Florence W. McCarthy, (a man), who is a Baltimore lace merchant, aboard the White Star liner Adriatic yesterday, Mr. McCarthy starting on a European tour.

Mr. Heine dashed down the gangplank at the "all-ashore" bugle, and ran into another man hurrying aboard. When the New Yorker got to the bottom of the plank he remembered the man he had bumped was R. Walter Powell, a merchant of St. Joseph, Miss., who used to be a chum of both McCarthy and himself, but whom neither had seen for twenty-five years.

Thereupon Mr. Heine dashed to the wireless station and sent these messages:

"McCarthy, aboard the Adriatic: Bon voyage. Pleasant Summer abroad and safe return. Introduce yourself, my compliments, Mr. Powell, aboard."

"Powell, aboard Adriatic: Wish you bully good trip. Introduce yourself Mr. McCarthy, aboard, with my compliments."

"I hope they meet and have a good time together, for they are both first class fellows," said Mr. Heine after the "wireless introduction."

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Casey and son, Jack, of New York City, spent the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lambrecht at this place. Mr. Casey returned to the city on Wednesday but his wife and son will remain here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Reinhart, who have been visiting Miss Emily Goldstein, Church street, have returned to their summer home at Edgemere, L. I. They enjoyed their stay in the Maple City very much.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Decker and daughters, Eleanor and Margaret, arrived Wednesday evening at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Decker, Fifteenth street, for an extended stay. When Mr. Decker and family left Los Angeles, Cal., last Saturday morning the heat in the Pacific states was felt in a number of places. As they passed through Needles, Cal., the mercury registered 122 degrees. The journey was very hot across the continent, which is evidence that the hot wave was felt throughout the United States. The children stood the trip well and all were anxious to see their relatives. This is Mr. Decker's first visit home since going away five years ago. He is looking well and from appearances the climatic conditions of California agree with him.

Mrs. N. B. Spencer and children, James and Ruth, are spending the heated term at Lake Ariel, with her father, J. W. Guernsey, Scranton, who owns a summer cottage there.

Death of Mrs. Morris Freeman.

Mary Simmons, the estimable wife of Morris Freeman, the well-known Main street merchant tailor, died Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock at her home, 814 Court street, after a long illness, in the 63d year of her age.

Mrs. Freeman was born December 9, 1862, in New York City, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Simmons. She married Morris Freeman in New York City on February 9, 1868. Shortly after their marriage they removed to Honesdale where they have resided ever since.

Her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Henry (Julia) Schwenley, Miss Jennette Freeman, Honesdale, and Mrs. Louis (Thillie) Landau, Scranton; three sons, Jefferson, Harry, Honesdale; Sidney, Baltimore, Md.; two sisters, Mrs. Morris Weslosky, New York City, Mrs. H. Farkas, Albany, Ga., and one brother, Charles Simmons, Newark, N. J., survive to mourn her loss.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the Freeman family in their sore bereavement.

The funeral will be held from the house at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Rabbi Anspacher, Scranton, in charge.

Hawley Has New Popular Dance

KNOWN AS THE "QUITO" DANCE AND IS QUITE THE RAGE.

Down in Hawley the mosquito is king. Everybody is fighting him, but he still reigneth. He is no respecter of persons and treats all alike. It is amusing to watch the victims stand first on one leg and then on the other, scratching the back of their legs with the toe of their shoes. It is called "quito" dance and only those who have been bitten by the long-billed pest can successfully take the different steps. The dance is becoming more and more popular and the numbers are increasing daily. "Swat" is also another well known resture and is practised by several others who cannot do the "quito" dance. Some people, however, have become so proficient that they can go through all the motions at the same time. The busy mosquito sings on and only laughs at his victims when an effort of "swat" is tried.

There have been no signs of this pestilential visitor in Honesdale until they were imported here via the Erie railroad, riding in first-class style, some of them occupying seats in the Pullman car. They are here, however, but unlike they are in Hawley, where many of them weigh a pound and climb the trees and bark.

The mosquitoes are driving the city guests from Blooming Grove and other Pike county resorts. A chartered Pullman brought a number of New York people to Glen Eyre one day recently and after staying one night at Blooming Grove the party entered automobiles and motored back to New York.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

I, Ferdinand Kroil, a Republican of the borough of Honesdale, and a supporter of the party hereby give notice to the voters of Wayne county that I announce myself a candidate for the office of County Commissioner. If elected I will faithfully perform the duties of the office and endeavor to reduce the taxation of the county.

Yours truly,
F. KROLL, Blacksmith,
Honesdale, Pa.
